Romantic Red Gems - The Color Of Passion And Love

Red is the most exciting of all colors. Its bright, fiery hue stirs the emotions and quickens the pulse like no other color and has symbolized passion since ancient times. Brilliant red gemstones come in every shade of red imaginable from scarlet and crimson to rose, vermilion, and flame. And today you can choose from a surprising number of exciting red gems in a wide range of sizes, cuts, shapes, and prices. Many are very affordable, too. Ask us about them!

Ruby. The most famous red gem ranging in color from medium to dark red-violet. It's hard, durable, and sparkling.

Garnet. A dazzling wine-red gem, closely resembling ruby. It's hard, glittering, and surprisingly inexpensive.

Red Tourmaline. An intensely red gem with bright inner fire. Very durable and affordable.

Red Topaz. A bright, clear, and lively red gem with light to medium red color. Moderately priced.

Red Spinel. Has a brilliant, richly saturated red color. Often mistaken for ruby. Quite inexpensive.
